BECAUSE OF YOU

OUR FAMILIES HEALED TOGETHER.

What an incredible year! All the challenges we've had over the last few years have become opportunities to step up and move to a future-focused way of supporting our families! We are thrilled to say we have succeeded in so many ways, which our 2022 Impact Report illustrates. Each result is remarkable in its own right, and when added all together, we demonstrate the needs of our families with hospitalized children are first and foremost – no matter what! But we don't do this work alone. We are grateful for a great community, resilient families, loyal donors, devoted staff, and steady (and growing) volunteers who keep the mission moving forward. We are looking forward to 2023 and working together with you to ease the burdens our families face every day.

Alisha Lambert was rushed to Helen DeVos Children's Hospital where she gave premature birth to twin girls at only 23 weeks. The girls were placed in the NICU and the Lambert family looked to the Ronald McDonald House for a place to stay. The House welcomed them with open arms!

"Being away from my family and having babies in the hospital was heartbreaking and stressful. RMHC is a wonderful place with amazing people. They bring light to life when it's hard to stay positive!"

We see the benefit that RMHC gives to families. We know what it's like to sit in the hospital worrying about the health of your child."

In late 2022 we piloted our Comfort & Care Cart, sponsored by the Jandernoa Foundation, at Helen DeVos Children's Hospital. For a 6-week period, RMHC West Michigan staff spent 3 hours every Friday providing 845 care and comfort items to 231 individuals at the hospital.

The hospitality cart is an ongoing volunteer opportunity with the House and the children's hospital. If you would like to learn more about getting involved, scan the QR code!
